

SCAN ME

Automatic Extinguisher Systems

These highly versatile fire suppression systems have many user-friendly features including the following:

Agent- FC-227ea
Product life - 5-10 years depending on the type of application
A, B, E type fires and can protect almost any space
Working temp -20°C - +80°C with pressure switch.
Working temp -40°C - +90°C without pressure switch.

- Available in lengths from 1 - 6m.
- Available with or without a pressure switch.
- The temperature activated tube is very flexible & unobtrusive.
- The suppression system agent is effective, clean & leaves no residue.
- The suppression agent is considered environmentally friendly.
- There is a pressure gauge on the end of the tube for system monitoring.
- The optional pressure switch can be utilized to trigger alarm &/or shutdown facilities.
- A self-contained, convenient, independent, automatic fire suppression system.
- Easily installed, much less bulky & invasive than a conventional cylinder, detection & distribution pipework.

PSL Fire & Safety
10 Akatea Road
Glendene, Auckland 0602

Phone +64 9 818 8048
sales@pslfireandsafety.co.nz

